FDIC Makes Public December Enforcement Actions; No Administrative Hearings Scheduled for February 2013

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in December. No administrative hearings are scheduled for February 2013.

The FDIC issued a total of 71 orders and one notice of charges in December. The orders included: eleven consent orders; 17 removal and prohibition orders; 13 civil money penalties; one supervisory prompt corrective action; one voluntary termination of insurance; 12 section 19 orders; one modification order; 14 orders terminating consent orders and cease and desist orders; one order terminating supervisory prompt corrective action directive; and one notice.

Copies of the orders referred to above can be obtained from or inspected at the FDIC's Public Information Center, 3501 Fairfax Drive, Room E-1002, Arlington, VA (telephone 703-562-2200 or 1-877-275-3342). To view all orders online, visit the FDIC's Web page by clicking the link below.

December 2012 Enforcement Decisions and Orders

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
